

My Dear Visali,

Happy Birthday Mammu. From the day I met you, my life has been filled with laughter, love, and endless happiness. You have a unique way of making moment we spend together feel like an adventure like Trichy trip and kumbakonam trip haha.

Your smile lights up my world,

Your laughter is music to my ears,

And your love is the anchor of my life.

With you, every day feels like a gift, and today, on your birthday,

I want to remind you of the gift you are to me.

On this special day, I wish for you all the happiness, love, and success in the world. May all your dreams and aspirations come true, and may our love continue to grow stronger.

Happy birthday, my love. May this year be the best one yet, and may every day be filled with the joy and love.

What I can do without you baby…Loving You…<3

With all my heart,

Yuvi ❤️
